

PREPARES TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS HERE

Secretary of Trans-Mississippi
Commercial Congress Busy
With Preliminaries.

NOTABLES ARE COMING

Twenty-two States Will Be Represented in Session Here
August 27-30.

E. J. Becker, secretary of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress which will hold this year's session in this city August 27 to 30, left here last night for Kansas City, Mo., for the purpose of packing up and shipping to Salt Lake his office records and files.

Rooms 217 and 218 in the Boston building have been secured for the secretary's headquarters, and as soon as Mr. Becker shall return from Kansas City he will establish himself and stenographers there. When seen at the Hotel Utah just prior to his departure Mr. Becker said:

Wide Range of View.

All matters of interest to the twenty-two states constituting the trans-Mississippi region, our Pacific island possessions and the territory of Alaska will be discussed by the congress. The subjects will embrace irrigation, agriculture, the parcels post, currency legislation, banking and banking laws, manufactures, horticulture, floriculture, forest reserves, mining and all manner of industries.

It is our purpose to have the Republican and Democratic presidential nominees address the congress if possible. Governor William Spry will lead the committee to attend the national Republican convention and invite its nominees to come here.

Ask for Tabernacle.

We expect to hold the sessions of the congress at the assembly hall, arrangements to that end being under way. Should we succeed in bringing here the presidential nominees we shall endeavor to secure the tabernacle for two evenings, giving one evening to each of the distinguished gentlemen, whoever they may be.

Immediately upon my return from Kansas City I shall open the secretary's office in the Boston building, rooms 217 and 218 now being furnished for that purpose.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action, and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers.
